No Crooks and Driest City in United States

BRUNDAGE WOULD CLOSE SALOONS

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—Chicago will be the "most unhealthy place for crooks and the driest city in the United States by Christmas," federal, state and city officials declared tonight after they had taken part today in a drive against liquor dealers which included cabaret injunctions shutting down eight such places and federal indictment of three persons on charges of conspiracy to violate the Volstead act.

Attorney General Edward J. Brundage, who instituted the 72 suits, tonight said that several more were contemplated and that

The federal officials joined in the drive shortly after the attorney general had filed his suits district attorney, procured temporary injunctions from Federal Judge K. M. Landis closing eight cafes. Shortly afterward the federal grand jury, which has been investigating alleged illegal liquor traffic for several weeks, returned indictments against 31 persons.

state and federal drive as an adjunct to the roundup of criminals, started on Sunday, and said it would make it easier for them to keep crooks out of the city. At the same time they frustrated an attempt to steal $50,000 worth of liquor being transported through the city on trucks and arrested two persons in connection with the theft of $50,000 worth of wine.

The cases of the 72 saloon and cafe owners, whose places Attorney General Brundage attempted to close, will be heard Friday by Judge Landis. An assistant attorney-general was assigned to direct a staff of attorneys in prosecuting the cases and Mr. Clyne volunteered the assistance of his office.

Shortly after the liquor drive became known the city council adopted a resolution authorizing the mayor to call a meeting of all state's attorneys and mayors of Illinois to plan a state-wide campaign again lawbreaking, and Chief of Police Charles Fitzmorris

The theft of $175,000 worth of

The injunctions issued and the suits filed today cover many of Chicago's most notorious cafes, while the indictments include men ball games, theatrical enterprises and other entertainment programs seem to have lost nothing of their lure and the people have money to patronize these things.

The last section of the hard road between Peoria and Springfield has been opened to traffic. They can properly be accounted rivals when one thinks of the effort made by Peorians to wrest the state fair from the capital. This hard road connection should enable both to enter a snappy contest for more business.

In eastern Illinois the other day a farmer had a thousand bushels of corn destroyed by fire. At any rate this man's loss was not nearly so great as if an equal quantity of corn had been burned a few months earlier. If the downward trend continues it won't be long until his loss is negligible.

Rotarians at Decatur at a recent meeting spent one minute in silent prayer for a member of their organization who had been seriously injured the day before in an automobile accident. The action was so unusual as to attract attention. But for those who believe in prayer why is it not much more sensible to spend that moment in supplication before rather than after death? The latter method of expressing sympathy and sorrow is quite common.

FEIGNED NON-PARTISANSHIP.
When President Wilson signed the order a few years ago whereby postmasters of the first, second and third class were placed under civil service, the action was widely reported as a fine piece of non-partisan work. But whatever effect of this kind was produced was thoroughly wiped off the record by the subsequent partisanship of the Wilson administration. The president broke precedent in several of his efforts to influence politics in different states and to bring about the election of certain Democrats.
It is not likely that Mr. Harding will refrain from signing an order which will abolish the system Mr. Wilson approves. The general view is that the president's real idea was that by such an order he could place a large number of Democratic change was coming with the postmasters continuously in office. Perhaps even he saw that next national election.

THE UTILITY HEARING
At the utility hearing in Springfield Wednesday it appeared that Illinois cities served by the Illinois Traction System are quite insistent that no increase in rates shall be made without adequate proof that they are necessary to make a fair return on the actual money investment of the companies. Without doubt these companies have met enormous increase in operation costs during the past two years. It is probable that in most instances the plants have been operated at a loss.

But the point is now that since the storm has been weathered and with prices evidently receding, are not present rates sufficient to make a proper return?
The question can be more readily settled in Jacksonville than some other cities, since the utility commission has on file its own reports showing the valuation of the Jacksonville properties. In other cities the laborious work of appraisal must be undertaken and done before the final proof can be made.

SOME REASONS FOR A THANKFUL SPIRIT
Business conditions are admittedly somewhat murky just now, but the average man can find much cause for thankfulness. It should be a real cause for satisfaction that financial authorities agree that no panic is imminent. The words of these men have not been spoken simply to allay fear, for they all point to the federal reserve system as the basis for their feeling of optimism.
Most bankers do not declare the system perfect, but they do say that its existence makes a panic impossible and there is the general comment that the worst days are past. The conditions are annoying. They tend to nervousness in business, but after all, lower price levels with the lessened profits in business will be better for everybody concerned. An era of high prices brings with it an era of spending which is really not beneficial. Many men are taking losses these days but most of them can stand it.

Here in Jacksonville there are many things to be thankful for. This city does not take on the marked periods of activity that come in some other cities. It is not an industrial center. For this reason it is not subject to the violent fluctuations which result from changing business conditions. In some cities when the industries shut down business is almost at a standstill. Here no very marked changes take place and instead business moves along at about the same steady even pace. After all, that is better in the long run than an extreme prosperity at one time and an absolute shutdown of business at another.

But another real blessing to take into account is the spirit of co-operation that exists today. Citizens are working together in a way that they did not used to understand. All that is necessary is to keep that spirit alive and active and with each Thanksgiving day Jacksonville will have increasing blessings to inventory.

The Toilers.
I hired some honest working men (to find such men long leagues I chased) to come around and fix my den, which time and weather had defaced. The carpenter arrived in state, he was attired in raiment glad; his touring car was simply great—eight cylinders the blained thing had. The plasterer, a stalwart man, gave evidence that he was flush, for he rode in a fine sedan upholstered in the richest plush. The painter came, as he'd agreed, a man of rather haughty mien; he used to drive an old bay steed, but now he toots a limousine. The tinsmith came, an able cuss, who labors through a six-hour day, and I admired his handsome bus, a Model '21 coupe. And there was one who came to delve a ditch where concrete would be poured; his wagon was a super-twelve whose powerful engine chugged and roared. They parked their cars around my shack until the street, both ways, was blocked; and of the toiler's burdened back, throughout the day they warily talked. They spoke of Capital that sat in gilded ease and wore a grin, and on ill gotten gains grew fat, while Honest Toil grew lank and thin. They talked all day of tying cans to plutocrats and men of means, then drove away in rich sedans, and cars and limousines.

PARTITION SUIT FILED WEDNESDAY

Heirs of Late Mrs. Mary A. Dougherty Seek Division of Property.

A partition suit has been filed in the office of Circuit Clerk C. J. Boston for hearing at the February term of court. The suit is brought by Jennie Dougherty Hinman of Greene county and is directed against William Dougherty et al. It is sought by this proceeding to partition a certain undivided one-half interest in lands in 31-13-9 belonging to the estate of the late Mrs. A. Dougherty, mother of the plaintiff. The land involved lies about two miles south of Nortonville.
It is set forth in the bill that at the time of her death Mrs. Dougherty owned one-half of the land in question and that at her death her children became seized of the same in fee as tenants in common by descent, subject to the right of dower of William Dougherty, husband of Mrs. Mary Dougherty.
It is further set forth that the dower of the said William Dougherty has never been set apart to him, that he has been in possession of the premises since the death of his wife and has never accounted to the plaintiff for the rents from the premises. The court is asked to require an accounting from the said William Dougherty and to make division of the premises among the parties interested.

Refrigeration and Meat

In less than an hour after an animal is dispatched in a Swift & Company packing plant, it is hanging up as meat in a room brought by refrigerating machinery to a temperature just above freezing.

From that time until it is in your own ice box—within two to three weeks—it is kept at the same temperature; first in the coolers at our packing plants; next on our refrigerator cars, more than 6,000 of which are constantly moving to market with their perishable cargoes; then in our refrigerator rooms at our branch selling houses; then in your dealer's ice box, and last in your own.

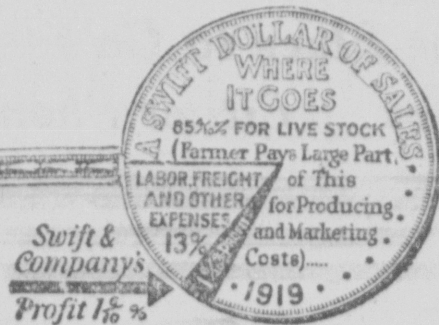

Only for the few minutes while it is being put into the refrigerator cars at our packing plants, or taken out of them at our branch houses, or whisked to your retailer in our trucks, is it exposed to any change of temperature.

Without a skilled use of this system of cooling, made possible by modern science, you could not get fresh meat, prepared under most sanitary conditions, except at greater expense—unless you happened to live so near live stock raising centers that your needs could be supplied from live stock raised near-by.

If the foregoing raises any question in the mind of the reader, we will endeavor to answer it, upon request.

What Happens in the Dark?

The farmer receives on an average only about one-third of what the consumer pays for meats, grains, fruits, wool, vegetables and cotton. Somewhere between producer and consumer an enormous toll is added to the cost of farm-grown necessities.

The city consumer, not seeing the profit-taking along the road to him, blames the farmer for high prices. The local farmer, not knowing just what does happen in the dark, is at the mercy of the system. To turn on the light is one purpose of

THE FARM-BUREAU MOVEMENT

Your local farm bureau is an important link in the great American Farm Bureau Federation which is fighting the farmer's market battles for him. The Federation has no quarrel with honest middlemen or efficient merchants, but it does have with the gouging in-between, speculators and gamblers.

The Federation is demanding that the Government hasten to furnish official figures on the cost of producing farm crops so that the public may know and attention be focused on what happens in the dark.

Many other big, constructive plans that you are too busy to attend to are being pushed for you by the Federation, and THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN urges you not to remain neutral but to join your local farm bureau, if you are not already a member, and to help fight your own battles.

Out of wide national experience THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN advises this. Its editors and contributors travel 300,000 miles a year to study your problems and to put its shoulder to every good movement in your interest.

If you are not a neutral farmer we would like to count you among our subscribers. Send us $1.00 for a yearly subscription and we will mail you fifty-two big issues crammed with farm news, courage, smiles, many proven helps and well-tried plans, strong cartoons, good pictures, bully fiction—a total of 3000 pages of help and hope, of national service to farmers. ## CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE WILL OPEN ON THANKSGIVING

Proceeds Will Go to the Open Air School Here—Public Urged to Buy Seals.

The Christmas Seal sale opens Thursday, Thanksgiving Day. These seals have been put in the hands of business men, college students and school boys and girls.

The purpose of this sale will finance the food for the Open Air school for this year of 1920-21, and put the modern health crusade in the public schools.

The purpose of the modern health crusade is to train our children in habits of health.

The purpose of the Open Air school is to build up the health of those children who, because of home conditions or physical disability, are underweight, underdressed, and often far retarded.

The people of the United States do not want again to face the record for physical disability they faced during the draft—three out of almost every ten men unfit because of physical defects. In a majority of these cases the defects could have been remedied had habits of health been formed during childhood. The modern health crusade trains the children in these habits: the Open Air school strengthens and builds the bodies and minds of those children who are in bad health.

This program for the year 1920-21 of the Anti-Tuberculosis league is a practical one. The budget is as follows:

Open Air school meals, winter term $1,701
Summer term 1,000
Modern health crusade in schools 525
Total $3,226

This is an entirely local and county program. It is the privilege of the men and women of Jacksonville to endorse it. These seals are an ornament to any Christmas package or letter, and they are a penny each. Therefore we urge you to purchase these seals and to use them.

LARGE HEATING PLANT INSTALLED BY CHERRY

Entire Building Can Now Be Heated In 25 Minutes With Modern System.

One of the largest and most modern heating plants ever seen in Jacksonville has just been installed at the Cherry Service station. It was put into operation for the first time Wednesday morning, and gave excellent satisfaction, according to Manager Witche. The entire building was heated to a comfortable degree within 25 minutes.

The plant was made at the Skinner company factory in St. Louis. It is the largest plant manufactured by this firm, and resembles the heating system now in use at the Eli Bridge company factory.

Heat for the first floor of the building is distributed direct from flared pipes, with an electric motor fan circulating the heat properly. Pipes lead to the second floor, and heat it with the same satisfaction as the first. Today, after the building had been warmed, the pipes to the second floor were turned off, warmth from the first floor heating the above section admirably. In the past, portions of the Cherry building have been heated by a furnace, but while horses were kept there, it was not practical to install a general heating plant.

The Jacksonville city executive confessed to some feeling of reluctance in talking to citizens of a city so much larger than Jacksonville about things that have been done here. He related events which have happened in a public way during the past two years, telling of the water project and other things that have come to pass here as the result of the willingness of the people to work together.

Other Jacksonville men who attended the Rotarian session were Judge H. P. Samuel, Henry Frisich, F. J. Blackburn and C. J. Buhrer.

A most interesting program in keeping with the Thanksgiving spirit was rendered Wednesday morning by pupils of the Franklin school. There were songs, recitations, a sketch, and a feature of all was a history of the Pilgrims, given by various pupils. A number of school patrons were present to enjoy the special exercises.

A shoe fund was raised at this school and the results are worthy of note. The Sixth grade raised $7.10, every pupil in the room contributing something. The total raised in the school was $11.35. This is a record to be envied, but it is hoped that the other schools did as well.

A "pep" meeting was held with Eugene Day leading the yells. Principal Schaefer made a talk which was much appreciated.

The football team plays Palmyra on Illinois field this afternoon. This evening the annual carnival will be given.

Some excellent stunts have been prepared by the various classes. There will be many booths and sideshows, a fortune teller and other things of interest.

TRIBUTE TO B. R. UPHAM.

When one passes from this stage of existence we commonly say that the physical form ceases to perform its functions, but the character lives on thru the coming years and the soul passes to its final reward.

I had the pleasure of knowing Mr. Upham for over forty-five years most of that time quite intimately. Had the honor of serving one term as county judge while he was clerk of the county court. In the many positions of life that he filled he was kind and courteous to all. He practiced a high sense of honor in every branch of life and was as true in political dealings as in other affairs. There was none stronger, none gentler. His conversation on all subjects was of the purest, without spot or blemish.

In thinking of his life I am reminded of the words of the Psalmist: What is man that thou art mindful of him? And the son of man, that thou visitest him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels and hast covered him with glory and honor, and also of the teachings of the Man of Galilee, "And whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die." Live on, brave soldier, thy warfare is over.

We think of you as having "marched thru the gates of the City of God," yes you have marched where the brave of all ages have trod, and received the welcome, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter into thy reward."

M. T. LAYMAN.

MILLERAND'S JEWISH DESCENT
Reference has already been made to the Jewish descent of the President of the French Republic, M. Millerand. His origin is one of the romances of history. His mother it appears was Melanie Cahen, her father being a poor hawker, who used to officiate at Benade at the Synagogue in Rue de Nazareth during the High Festivities. In the course of his rounds the hawker frequently stayed with a wine dealer named Millerand—the keeper of an estaminet—and his son fell in love with the hawker's daughter whose son is now the President. A maternal uncle of Mr. Millerand, Ephraim Cahen, who was well off and a disciple of Voltaire charged himself with the education of the young Millerand, and by this means the President had the first means afforded him of gaining the position he occupies. It must go on record that this President who is of such near Jewish origin is also one of the most bitter foes of Russian Bolshevism.

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.
These tablets are wonder-workers for the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.
If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

CONTINUANCE GIVEN IN RATE HEARING

CITIES HAVE UNTIL DECEMBER 16TH TO MAKE ANSWER

Utility Companies Declare Receivership Certain Unless Increases are Granted—Interesting Figures Presented in Support of Claims.

The hearing for increase in gas, electric and railway rates affecting Jacksonville, Decatur, Danville and other cities served by the Illinois Traction System and its subsidiary companies began in Springfield Wednesday, was continued by the Utility Commission until Thursday, December 16th.

This action was taken by the Commission over the strenuous objections of H. L. Green attorney for the System. Mr. Green insisted that an actual emergency exists and that postponement until the date mentioned was a matter of grave concern to the companies. Mr. Green in previous arguments had indicated unless early relief is given the companies receivership stares them in the face. E. B. Hamilton of Peoria is associated with Mr. Green.

However, the commission gave heed to the objections offered by attorneys for the several cities, and refused to continue the case to a date earlier than December 16th. The commission took the position that municipalities will present at least several weeks to compile facts and figures for introduction as evidence in answer to the allegations made by the companies.

Big Floating Debt.

The hearing began at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. Mr. Green made the opening statement for the companies and then attorneys representing several cities were heard. Judge H. P. Samuel entered appearance on behalf of Jacksonville. Attending the hearing with Judge Samuel were Mayor E. E. Crabtree and Henry Frisch. Mr. Green based his argument largely upon the claim that increase in coal and labor costs together with other increases have put the companies into such condition that they cannot render adequate service, make expansions or market securities. He went on to show that the only way the companies have been able to continue in operation is thru the borrowing of funds thru the parent company, carrying these obligations as a floating debt. A million and a half were the figures given as the total of this floating indebtedness.

The attorneys who spoke briefly for the several cities made general objection to increases proposed, declaring that with lower prices now effective for practically all companies that this is not the time for utility companies to seek increases. They claimed also that the company figures for increased cost were based on the records of a very high month, and could not consistently be considered as representing the operation cost that the companies will meet in coming months.

The first witness was O. T. Bramble, general auditor for the Illinois Traction System. From statistical reports in his hands Mr. Bramble told about the floating debt, and related certain facts as to needed betterment and expansions in the several cities where the companies are operating. He told of the difficulties in financing bonds or other securities that the companies hold. The investing public is no longer interested in utility paper because of the low earnings.

Mr. Bramble has been an auditor for the company for the past eighteen years and of course has complete familiarity with company statistics. He made a good witness in presenting the facts that the company wished to bring before the commission. Answering questions from Mr. Green, he quoted from tables which were made a part of the record, figures to show construction expenditures for the past three years, construction requirements and a summary of operation conditions. He also gave an income statement for the month of September for the past three years and then called attention to tax increases in 1920 over 1918 with the labor increases for the same two years.

Then the figures were given to show the increased cost of steam coal, gas coal, gas oil and other materials.

Tax Increases. Some local interest attaches to the figures given on tax increases of 1920 by comparison with 1918. The taxes for the several companies in the traction system were given for the two years mentioned and the percent of increase shown. Clinton is the only city in the group where the increase was lower than Jacksonville. The percentages of increase were as follows:

Bloomington & Normal Railway & Light Co., 111 per cent.	Cairo Electric Co., 37 per cent.
Clinton Gas & Electric Co., 23 per cent.	Danville Railway & Light Co., 52 per cent.
Decatur Railway & Light Co., 95 per cent.	Galesburg Railway & Power Co., 407 per cent.
Jacksonville Railway & Light Co., 35 per cent.	Madison County Light Co., 239 per cent.
Mound City Light & Water Co., 116 per cent.	Northern Illinois Light & Traction Co., 138 per cent.
Urbana & Champaign companies, 52 per cent.

Mr. Bramble told of the necessity of deferred betterments which high operating costs had made and testified that the total of deferred construction for the past three years was $1,467,111.

NOTICE

In order that employees of the Jacksonville Journal Co. may observe Thanksgiving as a holiday there will be no issue of this paper tomorrow.—Jacksonville Journal Co.

In addition to the estimated amount required for construction the coming year at $1,528,847.

These figures mean that the company estimates that about $3,000,000 are needed for betterments. The witness freely admitted that in several of the cities the service rendered was not up to proper standard because of the deterioration of plants and needed improvements which have not been possible because of the low financial condition.

Case Commenced in 1918.

At the afternoon session F. E. Warfield of the auditing department was the witness and continued along the general line of testimony which Mr. Bramble had followed. One reason that figures presented by the companies relate to the years 1918 and 1920 is because the case was first heard during the month of February, 1918, and the order making the present rates effective was issued by the commission during the month of May, 1918.

All of the figures presented were supplementary to documents already filed in this hearing. Among other figures brought out in the testimony was that during the coming year the company must refund bonds to the extent of $357,000. The witness said that it is practically certain that these bonds cannot be refunded save by the sufferance of the people who own these bonds. It is not likely that any other persons will be willing to lend the money. Out of this total sum, $10,000 of bonds apply to the Jacksonville properties. In explaining the difficulties of securing money thru the issuance of bonds, an instance was quoted to show that the most recent issue cost the company 9 1-2 per cent.

Hard to Raise Money.

One of the attorneys for the cities sought to show that the utility companies in their difficulty to sell securities are simply experiencing like conditions that business men and private individuals meet.

The rate of increase which is being sought to apply to Jacksonville on gas is from $1.60 to $1.75 per thousand as against the present rate of $1.15 to $1.30. Increases for electrical service suggested are from a cent to one-half cent according to the rates in other cities.

Judge Samuel asked Mr. Warfield for figures relating to the bond and stock indebtedness on the Jacksonville properties and the witness gave these figures: Bonds outstanding $866,000. Preferred stock $123,000. Common stock $100,000.

To understand the company's condition these figures must be considered in conjunction with the local company's floating indebtedness of $109,000. The statistics show that the properties have been operated in the past months at a loss and the floating debt has accumulated. A 7 cent fare is asked for the street railway company instead of the 6 cent fare which is now effective. About the only sharp clash of the day came near the end of the hearing. Mr. Green was insistent that because of the emergency existing that it was not fair to the companies to continue the hearing for more than a week or ten days. Attorneys for the municipalities maintained that they would not have sufficient time to consider the company's filed documents or to compile any figures of their own within the time suggested. They asked that the hearing be continued to Dec. 15.

Cities Given Time. Mr. Dempsey of the commission, who is in charge of this hearing, was unwilling to yield to Mr. Green's contention and said that the municipalities were entitled to the time asked. He therefore fixed the hearing for Thursday, Dec. 16.

Mr. Green also asked that it be the understanding that the cities would not ask for a continuance from the date specified, but the attorneys were not willing to enter into any such an iron clad agreement and Mr. Dempsey sustained them in this view.

Before the hearing began the commission issued an order sustaining the gas and electric rates suggested in the company's petition until April 15. This was merely a formal order, in accordance with the law. A petition has been filed asking for an increase in rates, unless action is taken within 30 days they become effective. The commission has the power to suspend rates for a four month period and therefore in each case such a formal order is entered. However, if after the hearing Dec. 16 the commission decides that the rates should be increased, this action will automatically cancel the order suspending the rates until April.

LARGE AUDIENCE AT ELKS ANNUAL SHOW

Jollies of 1921 Proved First Class Attraction—Cast Well Selected and Performance Moved Smoothly.

An audience that taxed the capacity of the theater witnessed the performance of the Elks Jollies of 1921 at the Grand Wednesday evening. For several days rehearsals have been in progress and the performance moved smoothly thruout.

The offering this year was the most pretentious the Elks have ever attempted and it was the consensus of opinion that the Jollies of 1921 was the best show the local lodge has ever offered to the public.

The Jollies is given under the supervision of the Joe Bren company and that was sufficient to assure that it would be up to the minute in every detail. However, this well known production company surpassed all former efforts in the present performance. Over fifty people are in the cast selected from the best local talent. The dancing was especially good and easily the feature of the performance. There were catchy songs and funny situations and the audience frequently expressed its approval of the efforts of the players.

Another performance will be given this evening and already there is a large seat sale and indications point to another large audience this evening. The cast of characters and the various scenes are given hereunder:
